The organiser takes all reasonable steps to minimise the risk of injury to participants during fundraising events. There is a stringent risk assessment process in place for each and every event which aims to minimise the risk to everyone taking part. However, by taking part in this event, you acknowledge that there may be conditions or circumstances beyond our control that can lead to unforeseen risks. If you have any concerns or queries please contact us before agreeing to take part in this event.

Hansel and the organiser reserve the right to cancel or postpone the event if they consider there is an unacceptable risk (e.g. severe adverse weather) to the event participants, any staff or the general public. We will do our best to offer an alternative indoor challenge rather than cancelling the event. If the event is cancelled we will endeavour to move your participation to an alternative date.

All transfers to and from the venue are at the participant's own expense.

All participants are responsible for their personal belongings during the event. The event organisers and instructors will not be held liable for any loss, theft, or damage to personal property. No phones are permitted during the workshop or the firewalk.
