A few words from Janette..

Hi everyone, hope you're all well. It was lovely to see you at the Summer Ball and how handsome and lovely you all looked. It is always a great excuse to get all dolled up!

Music on the Green, "WOW" what a great day. Everyone put lots of work into their costumes and the photos are amazing. Thank you for everyone's help with this event!

Could I remind everyone of the "Wear it Pink at Hansel" event on Friday 24th October 2025. This event starts at 1pm in Lindy's, so why not come along and enjoy a great afternoon

See you all very soon

Janette

ALL WELCOME!

Fiona enjoyed a lovely meal at the Brig 'O Doon restaurant. She would highly recommend it!

When booking you can arrange to be seated in a quieter area if you prefer too.

Andrew and Brian enjoyed a visit to Arran View Fishery where they had a drink and cake and watched people fishing.

As part of Learning Disability Awareness Week, Kerrie took part in the "Ucan Artist's Exhibition".

Douglas, Anne-Marie and Lorna performing in The Wizard of Oz at their drama group.

Lorna enjoyed a visit to the circus.

Douglas and Andrew have been busy over the summer holidays. They visited Keswick Wildlife Park, the Aquarium in Maryport, a lovely beach at High Harrington and also managed a boat trip at Bo'ness!

Happy 60th Birthday Carol!

Andrew has been growing his own vegetables. He grew a purple cauliflower and a cabbage which he had for dinner.

Fiona went for an overnight stay to Glasgow and went to see "The Last Laugh".

The next day Fiona went to Edinburgh with Loch Lomond Travel.

MOVIE NIGHT

BLACKPOOL, here we come...

The Groovy Gang had a great time at Seton Sands Holiday Village.

We had a fun filled holiday and enjoyed: swimming, eating out, watched part of a Half Marathon, visited Edinburgh Zoo and gift shop, played bingo, went to a character breakfast and danced to a singer named Daryl Douglas. We enjoyed the on-site entertainment and Colin won a prize for being the best dancer.

We also went to Edinburgh Castle for the Tattoo. Duncan and I got a tattoo each. I got a dog and Duncan got a Scottish Thistle. By Jill
